How did we obtain your personal data?

House of Oneness has obtained your data because you have provided this data to us.

What are your rights?

Under the European General Data Protection Regulation you have a number of rights with regard to your data and the processing thereof:

Access

You may access your personal information and make any necessary changes in your account. If you would like to see which personal data House of Oneness has obtained about you, you may exercise your right of access by submitting a request to House of Oneness.

Making changes

If you wish to make changes to the personal information that you have seen as a result of a request for access and you are unable to make the changes yourself in your account, you may request that House of Oneness makes these changes for you. You may request that House of Oneness modifies, corrects, supplements, erases or shields your information.

Restriction of processing of personal data

You also have the right, under certain conditions, to ask House of Oneness to restrict the processing of your personal data.

Right to object

If processing of your data takes place on the grounds of 'legitimate interest' by House of Oneness or a third party, you have the right to object to that processing.

Portability of data

You have the right to obtain your personal data from House of Oneness. House of Oneness will provide this in a structured and commonly used format, which can easily be opened using commonly used digital systems.

Withdrawing consent

When the legal basis for a particular processing is your explicit consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. This does not affect past processing, but does mean that we will no longer be allowed to process this data in the future. It may also result in House of Oneness no longer being able to provide you with certain services.

Response from House of Oneness

A request can be sent to info@mariajohanna.com. House of Oneness will comply with your request as soon as possible and in any case no later than one (1) month after House of Oneness has received such a request. If House of Oneness rejects your request, we will indicate in our reply why the request was rejected.

Recipients of your personal data

It is possible that House of Oneness is required to submit your data to a third party, for example to fulfil a legal obligation.

What are cookies and how does House of Oneness use them?
